

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER 2021

TABLEWARE

THE TABLEWARE SOURCE

TODAY

LIFE

PORLAND

WWW.LASVEGASMARKET.COM

Wish you were here!

OLIVIA RIEGEL
Mora flutes
$135, set of two
(866) 267-6787
oliviariegel.com

SIR/MADAM
The New Coupe
$62, set of two
(718) 797-8758
shopsirmadam.com

BADASH CRYSTAL
Rainbow Sailboat
$69.95
(631) 242-9101
badashcrystal.com

ABBIAMO TUTTO
Canoe
$65
(866) 714-9161
e-abbiamotutto.com

COSTA NOVA Fauna
$89, set of four salad plates
$79, set of four mugs
(845) 277-5700
costanova.com

BLOOMINGVILLE
Stoneware planters and vases
$29.99 to $67.99
(866) 323-2264
bloomingville.us

BEATRIZ BALL
Croc glasses
$76 to $100, set of four
(888) 265-1069
beatrizball.com

CREATIVE CO-OP
Sienna stoneware pitcher
$29.99
(866) 323-2264
creativecoop.com

Handmade blown glassware has been around for thousands of years.

My family's glass roots go back to Saint Louis in France, 1586.

There are other remarkable long-lasting operations: The still family-owned Poschinger in Germany, 1568. Riedel in Austria, 1756. Jamestown in Virginia, 1608. Libbey in Ohio, 1818.

And my own operation, Flemington Cut Glass in New Jersey, 1908, which closed after 100 years in operation, in 2008.

GLASSWARE HAS SHOWN ITS VALUE FOR THOUSANDS OF YEARS. THERE'S SO MUCH OPPORTUNITY FOR MANUFACTURERS AND BUYERS TO BRING EXCITEMENT TO THE TABLE WITH THE REBIRTH OF ENTERTAINING AT HOME.

GEORGE MULLER