Kalaty Rug Corp.

B-455

The company's primary focus this market is on high-end hand-knotted rugs that feature sophisticated designs in the latest designer color palettes. The company's three newest hand-knotted collections, Ambrose, Solano and Atelier, will be on display alongside additions to existing best-selling, traditional, transitional and contemporary abstract collections.

The Ambrose collection includes several Oushak-inspired patterns in a variety of modern color palettes. It is also hand knotted using a combination of hand-spun wool and Silkette yarns.

The Solano collection is an eclectic collection of modern abstracts as well as traditional inspirations hand knotted in a high-low textural mix of premium wool and Silkette yarns. It has zero pile and plush qualities for a luxurious look and feel.
