Easy Access to Product at Las Vegas Market

This summer, Las Vegas Market offers buyers the ultimate opportunity for exploration and engagement with thousands of cross-category lines presented in showrooms and temporary exhibits.

The combination of compelling product and an easy-to-shop location is a draw for Sarah Martens, division merchandising manager for Nebraska Furniture Mart, which has four locations: Des Moines, Iowa; Dallas/Fort Worth; Kansas City, Kansas; and Omaha, Nebraska. "I love the convenience of Las Vegas Market, from the hotel shuttles to the ease of working a market that is all under one roof," she said. "Additionally, Las Vegas is an easy location for everyone to get to, and the dining options are endless, which makes for great opportunities to build relationships with vendors over dinner."

Connecting with new vendors attracts Patricia A. Sampson, director of The Bookstore & Resource Center at The King Center in Atlanta. "Las Vegas Market is filled with new vendors. I particularly liked the temporary exhibits and all of the networking opportunities," she said.

Yvonne Miles, buyer for Wildlife Madagascar in San Diego, recommends Las Vegas Market for buyers who have not attended a market in a while. "After a two-year hiatus, returning to the Las Vegas Market provided exactly what I needed," she said. "I found many new products and reconnected with vendors. The future is looking bright!"

Las Vegas Market is the leading home furnishings and gift market in the western U.S., presenting thousands of furniture, home décor, and gift resources in an unrivaled market destination. Las Vegas Market's diverse product offerings allow for cross-category commerce among these industries.

The next Las Vegas Market is July 30 to Aug. 3. Visit LasVegasMarket.com for more information.
